The bug busters are composed of 8 general stages and 8 final stages with Dr. Jijurbung.

On the screen, 9 zones with question marks will appear. Unless you clear all 8 other zones, you cannot select the central zone on the screen.

Clearing all other 8 zones, you can finally select the 9th zone, Dr. Jijurbung's zone.

Each zone has 3 or 4 stages; in each stage, you face with opponents (flies, mosquitoes, cockroaches and other insects) of each stage. If you sweep them off, you face with zone boss.

Opponents try to adhere to the player or to attack at a distance or to throw objects unto the player. The player can avoid damage on himself by attacking opponents before they adhere or hit down attacking objects.

スプレー

It measures the present volume of spray. It's much like the number of remaining bullets in a gun shooting game. If the gauge indicates low capacity, it should be reloaded. One can reload by shaking the spray. The spray is filled a little at a shake. To fill it up, one has to shake many times. If one obtain an item, the capacity soar up to infinity for few seconds.

ライフ（ Life：ゲームの 生命力 ）

A gauge indicating the present vitality of a player. If the player was hit by an opponent attack, he loses his vitality to a certain extent. The degree of loss depends on the opponent's species and attack force. If any of opponent bosses attack, the player can lose much of his vitality at one blow. The play can increase his life vitality with item or bonus points.

時間

Each stage has its time limit. Basically, one has to wipe out all opponents within that time limit to clear the stage. If he fails, the game will be over. The player can gain bonus time when he obtain items or eliminate an opponent.

Story

Mr. Dajaba, an insect terminator of All-Clean (KaKalkeum) village, is working with Gaduri, his wife and faithful assistant in his Pipopo office as usual to exterminate all vermin in the village.

The village Kakalkeum, originally a clean village, had hardly any bugs and his business was in trouble.

Meanwhile, bitterness was growing between two neighboring villages; All-Clean villagers hated the filthiness of it's neighboring All-Dirty (DeoroDeoro) village and visa versa.

One day, Dr Jijurbung of All-Dirty village created new species of harmful insects and discharged them stealthily in the All-Clean village, resulting in great confusion.

Throughout the village, these insects caused all kinds of trouble and the head of the village asked Mr. Dajaba to eliminate all insects in All-Clean village.

Hereupon, Mr. Dajaba went around the village and wiped out these insects; some were very tough.

Among of all, bug kings, which Dr Jijurbung created, were the toughest kinds since they had a dreadful poison, which inflicted a fatal wound.

Neverthless, Mr. Dajaba and his wife Gaduri go running with a thorough sense of mission wherever they are needed

As they engage in a battle against those insects, they come to disclose the wicked plot of Dr Jijurbung of the neighboring village and they fight a desperate battle with him.
